Privacy notice for pupils, parents and carers – use of your child’s personal data

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing ‘privacy notices’ (sometimes called ‘fair processing notices’) to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about pupils.

We, Bishop Wilson Church of England Primary School, Puddington Lane, Burton, Neston CH64 5SE, are the ‘data controller’ for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Phil Orchard / Martin Waters – Cheshire West & Chester Council, HQ, 58 Nicholas Street, Chester, CH1 2NP

Why Do You Need My Information?

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- Protect pupil welfare
- to assess the quality of our services
- Administer admissions waiting lists
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to provide a lunch
- to contact you when we need to

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include, but is not restricted to:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment/test information
- Exclusions/behavioural information
- Relevant medical information (such as allergies, asthma, regular medication)
- Special educational needs information (such as diagnosis of conditions, specific targets, reports from the Educational Psychologist, Paediatrician)
- Photographs (such as photographic evidence of learning)

What Allows You To Use My Information?

We collect and process pupil information as part of our public functions under both the Data Protection Act and Article 6, part (e) of the General Data Protection Regulation.

The legislation and guidance that allows us to do this in the UK includes, but is not limited to:

- The Education Pupil Registration \(England\) Regulations 2006
- Education \(Information About Individual Pupils\) \(England\) Regulations 2013
- Education Act 2002
- Education Act 2011
- Government Guidance on Schools and Education

Who Will My Information Be Shared With?

We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupils attend after leaving us
- our local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- NHS staff
- Your family and representatives

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to the Department for Education's website.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the Department for Education as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database.

Visit the National Pupil Database \(NPD\) website for further information on the National Pupil Database.

The Department for Education may share information about our pupils from the National Pupil Database with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit the Department of Education's website.

Do I Have To Provide This Information And What Will Happen If I Don't?

The majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory as part of our public functions under both the Data Protection Act and Article 6, part (e) of the General Data Protection Regulation, when we collect data outside of this, we will rely on your consent to collect and store your personal data.

How Long Will You Keep This Data For And Why?

We hold pupil data for the time they are attending our school. We keep this information for six years once the pupil has left the school. Data information regarding accidents on the premises are held until the pupil is 22 years of age
